Tribute Paid Mrs. Jennings On Retirement as Teacher

A testimony and tribute to an outstanding Appomattox County school teacher featured a meeting of the Parent-Teacher Association of the Spout Spring Elementary School. Honored on this pleasant occasion was Mrs. G. Parks Jennings. The honoree is retiring at the end of this session, after 28 years of devoted service in the field of public education.

The program took the form of making use of the theme: "This Is Your Life — Fannie Christian Jennings!"

Those in attendance heard retraced the eventful and useful life of Mrs. Jennings. She was the daughter of the late Judge David Alexandrer Christian and Mary Agnes Thornhill Christian, and was born at the "Mountain View Farm" in this county. When she was eleven, the family moved to Richmond, and later she attended school in Chase City, and the State Female Normal School at Farmville, now Longwood College.

Her first teaching experience was at Emporia, Va., from February to June in 1908. During one period of the teaching profession, at Wheeler's one-room school. The school year ran only six months, but the teacher had to instruct in all seven grades. Then Mrs. Jennings went into other activities to make the best possible use of her ability and energy, but in 1943 returned to the teaching career, after a few periods of substitute instruction.

In 1946, she came to the Spout Spring School, teaching the first and second grades for the first of her career there, and then adding the third grade.

Many friends and former pupils were present at this testimonial occasion, and at its conclusion a gift of silver was presented to Mrs. Jennings.

All those ,ro planned and staged this tribute are deserving of commendation.

... Mrs. G. Parks Jennings

ELEMENTARY SCHOOL CAFETERIA MENU

May 30:: Tuna fish salad with crackers, 1 slice cheese, whipped potatoes, string beans, apple Betty, 1-2 pt. milk.
May 31: Beef hash with hot yeast bread, candied sweet potatoes, purple plums, rice pudding, 1-2 pt. milk.
June 1: 1-2 ham salad sandwich, 1-2 peanut butter sandwich, potato chips, gold tomatoes, ice cream, 1-2 pt. milk.
June 2: Chicken salad with hot yeast bread, macaroni and cheese, collard greens, chocolate pudding, 1-2 pt. milk.
June 3: Chili con carne with hot corn muffins, succotash, baked apples, cherry roll, 1-2 pt. milk.

Final plans were announced this week for the Annual Appomattox Horse Show, sponsored by the local Lions Club and Jayceen.
The committee stated yesterday that they were fortunate to have again as judges Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Evans, of Marietta, Georgia Mr. and Mrs. Evans have a training stable and riding school in Marietta, and are most outstanding in their fields. Johnny trains and shows some of the finest guited and road horses in the country. His wife, Peggy, is one of the country's top riding instructors. Her students have been awarded the highest reputation honors at the largest shows in the United States.
One of the wonderful things about this couple is that while they are developing a good horse and a good rider, they are developing fine character and personality in their students. They radiate joy to all with whom they come in contact. It is a genuine pleasure to welcome Peggy and Johnny back to Appomattox to judge the Show, and it is hoped they too will surrender a part of themselves to this community.
Another attraction this year will be Donald Harrison and his pony, "Trigger," from Suffolk, Va., who will carry the colors to open each of the Shows. Trigger was 1959 Reserve Champion pleasure pony. Donald and Trigger have been color guards for some of the largest shows. Recently Donald presented a flag to Vice President Richard Nixon, who was Parade Marshall of a big show in Kentucky.
This year's prize money to exhibitors is greater than last year, and the trophies are beyond description. They may be seen Thursday and Friday displayed at the local banks. The outstanding trophy is the Watkins M. Abbitt Challenge Trophy, which will be presented to the exhibitor showing the Grand Champion Walking Horse. This trophy has to be won three years by one exhibitor for permanent possession. Mr. Abbitt will personally present this trophy to the winner. Mrs. W. M. Abbitt will be Ribbon Marshall. Mrs. Abbitt and her ribbon girls and their escorts will spread sunshine as they distribute trophies, ribbons and checks to the more than 133 winners in the 2nd annual show.
Present indications are that there will be more horses and more spectators this year than last. A number of fine horses have been registered which were not here last year. There will be stall facilities for exhibitors this year, and a few horses will ship in a day or two before the show.
The Appomattox High School Band will entertain the spectators at the Ball Park, beginning at 11 o'clock Saturday morning. There will be a wide variety of good food and refreshments served from 11 o'clock in the morning until 10 o'clock at night.
The grand prize of the Show will be a hundred dollar Savings Bond, which will be given, to some person at the end of the night show. The winner will be announced immediately after the last class.
Murrell Ferguson, the Show Chairman, has done a marvelous job of organizing, planning, and getting this Show ready. He will certainly bring you a wonderfully entertaining day.
Show hours are 1:00 P. M., and 7:30 P. M. Tickets are $1.00 for each performance. Ringside parking is $2.00 for afternoon, and $3.00 at night. Food available will include plate lunches, sandwiches, chicken and ham salads, hamburgers, hot dogs, soft drinks, coffee and ice cream.

Mrs. Lawson Elected

The Law Wives of the University of Virginia have just had their election of officers for the coming year 1960-61. Mrs. Harry G. Lawson, the former Louise Burnett, of Appomattox, has been elected to the office of vice-president in charge of programs. Her husband is now completing his second year in the Law School of the University of Virginia.
